<sup>1</sup> The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, as applicable, are: KB US Holdings, Inc. (1000), KB Holding, Inc. (3082), AG Kings Holdings Inc. (8681), AG Holdings II Inc. (3828), Kings Super Markets, Inc. (6769), Balducci's Holdings LLC (1913), Balducci's Connecticut LLC (1945), Balducci's Maryland LLC (1926), Balducci's Virginia LLC (1949), and Balducci's New York LLC (1934). The location of the Debtors' corporate headquarters is 700 Lanidex Plaza Parsippany, NJ 07054.

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

KB US Holdings, Inc. and its debtor affiliates, as debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the “Debtors”), respectfully represent as follows in support of this motion (the “Motion”):

Background

1. On the date hereof (the “Commencement Date”), the Debtors each commenced with this Court a voluntary case under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee, examiner, or statutory committee of creditors has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

2. Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have filed a motion requesting joint administration of their chapter 11 cases pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”).

3. Additional information regarding the Debtors’ businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases is set forth in the Declaration of M. Benjamin Jones Pursuant to Rule 1007-2 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York, sworn to on the date hereof (the “Jones Declaration”), which has been filed with the Court contemporaneously herewith and is incorporated by reference herein.<sup>2</sup>

Jurisdiction

4. The Court has jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334, and the Amended Standing Order of Reference M-431, dated January 31, 2012

<sup>2</sup> Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the respective meanings ascribed to such terms in the Jones Declaration.

(Preska, C.J.). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Relief Requested

5. By this Motion, pursuant to sections 363 and 503 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors request entry of an order authorizing, but not directing, them to pay (a) up to $175,000 in Shipping Charges, (b) up to $1.6 million in Miscellaneous Lien Claims, (c) certain amounts in connection with Commencement Date Orders to suppliers, and (d) the PACA/PASA Claims (as each term is defined below).<sup>3</sup>

6. A proposed form of order granting the relief requested herein on an interim basis is annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the “Proposed Interim Order”).

The Debtors’ Supply Chain and the Shippers

7. In operating thirty-five (35) stores (the “Stores”), the Debtors must ensure the Stores are continuously replenished with a supply of goods including, but not limited to, fresh produce, canned goods, baked goods, dairy products, eggs, meats, seafood, floral products, alcoholic beverages and various non-food products (the “Merchandise”) for sale directly to the Debtors’ customers. Some suppliers deliver Merchandise directly to the Stores. Certain suppliers’ Merchandise is delivered by third-party transporters (collectively, the “Shippers”).

8. In the event the Debtors fail to reimburse the Shippers for charges incurred in connection with the transport of the Merchandise, various state laws permit the Shippers to assert a statutory lien against the Merchandise in their possession that is the subject of any

<sup>3</sup> Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors have sought authority, but not direction, to pay claims held by certain third-party vendors pursuant to the Debtors’ Motion for Authorization to Pay Certain Prepetition Obligations to Critical Vendors, Approval of Related Procedures, and Related Relief (the “Critical Vendors Motion”). Through this Motion, the Debtors do not seek authority to satisfy any prepetition claim that may be paid pursuant to the Critical Vendors Motion.

delinquent charges, securing such charges and potentially blocking the Debtors' access to the Merchandise. To maintain access to the Merchandise that is essential to the continued viability of the Debtors' retail operations and preserve the value of the Merchandise, the Debtors seek authority to honor outstanding invoices related to the shipping services provided to the Debtors prior to the Commencement Date (collectively, the "Shipping Charges"). The Debtors estimate that, as of the Commencement Date, there are approximately $175,000 of Shipping Charges.

Miscellaneous Lien Claimants

9. The Debtors regularly make improvements and repairs to their property (including the Stores) and the equipment that the Debtors use in the operation of their business, including refrigeration equipment, electrical systems, plumbing, elevator and escalator systems, and various types of food service equipment. To do so, the Debtors contract with a number of third parties (collectively, the "Miscellaneous Lien Claimants" and, together with the Shippers, the "Lien Claimants") along with certain subcontractors (collectively, the "Subcontractors") to the Miscellaneous Lien Claimants.<sup>4</sup>

10. The Miscellaneous Lien Claimants could potentially assert liens, including mechanic's liens, artisan's liens, and materialman's liens against the Debtors' property for amounts the Debtors owe to these third parties (collectively, the "Miscellaneous Lien Claims"). The Debtors spend an average of approximately $800,000 per month on maintenance costs (e.g., refrigeration equipment), all of which is subject to mechanics liens in the event of non-payment by the Debtors. Pursuant to section 362(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the act of perfecting such a lien, to the extent consistent with section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, is expressly excluded from the automatic stay.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Nothing contained herein is intended to be or shall be construed as an approval or assumption of the contracts between the Debtors and the Miscellaneous Lien Claimants, or any other agreement, contract, program, policy, or lease, under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

11. If the Debtors are unable to pay the Miscellaneous Lien Claims, the Debtors risk losing access to equipment and other property that is critical to the continued operation of the Stores. For example, even a short delay in repairs to a single Store's refrigeration unit could result in lost product worth thousands of dollars and lost sales of significantly more. Accordingly, the Debtors seek authority to pay and discharge, on a case-by-case basis, Miscellaneous Lien Claims that the Debtors believe have created, or could give rise to, a lien against the Debtors' property or equipment, regardless of whether such Miscellaneous Lien Claimants have already perfected their interests.<sup>6</sup> The relief request herein includes authority to remit payments to the Miscellaneous Lien Claimants for the Subcontractors' maintenance work.

12. The Debtors estimate there are approximately $1.6 million of Miscellaneous Lien Claims as of the Commencement Date.

Commencement Date Orders

13. Prior to the Commencement Date, and in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors ordered Merchandise that will not be delivered until on or after the Commencement Date (the "Commencement Date Orders"). To avoid becoming general unsecured creditors of the Debtors' estates with respect to related Merchandise, certain suppliers may refuse to ship or transport such Merchandise or may recall such shipments with respect to such Commencement Date Orders or refuse to deliver future orders unless the Debtors issue substitute purchase orders

<sup>5</sup> Under section 546(b), a debtor's lien avoidance powers "are subject to any generally applicable law that . . . permits perfection of an interest in property to be effective against an entity that acquires rights in such property before the date of perfection . . ." 11 U.S.C. § 546(b)(1)(A).

<sup>6</sup> To the extent that the Debtors make any payments with respect to a Miscellaneous Lien Claim, however, no such payment shall be deemed a waiver of the Debtors' rights to challenge the extent, validity, perfection, or possible avoidance of such liens.

postpetition or pay for such Merchandise. To prevent any disruption to the Debtors' retail operations, and given Merchandise delivered on, within twenty (20) days prior to, and after the Commencement Date is afforded administrative expense priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors seek an order (a) confirming administrative expense priority under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code to all undisputed obligations of the Debtors arising from the acceptance of Merchandise subject to Commencement Date Orders and (b) authorizing the Debtors to satisfy such obligations in the ordinary course of business.

PACA/PASA Claims

14. To maintain the goodwill of the Debtors' customer base, which relies on the Debtors as a primary source of fresh fruits, produce, meats, and poultry, it is critical that the Debtors preserve the ability to source such Merchandise.

15. The Debtors believe that a certain portion of the Merchandise sold in the Stores may qualify as "perishable agricultural commodities" under the Perishable Agricultural Commodities Act of 1930, as amended, 7 U.S.C. §§ 499a et seq. ("PACA"). PACA's definition of "perishable agricultural commodity" generally includes "fresh fruits and fresh vegetables of every kind and character [whether or not frozen or packed in ice]." 7 U.S.C § 499a(b)(4). Under PACA, eligible produce suppliers and their agents (the "PACA Claimants") are the beneficiaries of a statutory trust (the "PACA Trust") in all of the buyer's perishable agricultural commodity inventory or other derivatives of perishable agricultural commodities, the products derived therefrom, and the proceeds related to any sale of the commodities or products (collectively, the "PACA Trust Assets"). See 7 U.S.C. § 499e(c)(2). PACA Trust Assets are preserved as a non-segregated floating trust and may be commingled with non-trust assets. PACA Trust Assets are not property of a debtor's estate. In re Kornblum & Co., 81 F.3d 280, 284 (2d Cir. 1995).

16. Similarly, certain of the Debtors' suppliers (the "PASA Claimants" and, together with the PACA Claimants, the "PACA/PASA Claimants") may be eligible to assert claims under the Packers and Stockyards Act of 1921 as amended, 7 U.S.C. § 181 et seq. ("PASA"), which prescribes the conditions of operations for businesses dealing in livestock and poultry. PASA creates a statutory trust (the "PASA Trust" and, together with the PACA Trust, the "Statutory Trusts") scheme which is virtually identical to PACA in respect of delivery of livestock, meat products and related products, products derived therefrom and the proceeds related to the sale of such commodities or products (collectively, the "PASA Trust Assets" and, together with the PACA Trust Assets, the "Trust Assets"). See In re W.L. Bradley Co., 75 B.R. 505, 509 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1987) ("The Legislative history expressly notes that the [PACA Trust] was modeled on the trust amendment to the Packers and Stockyards Act.").

17. The PACA/PASA Claimants may be eligible to assert potential claims under the respective statutes for outstanding payments owed on account of applicable Merchandise (collectively, the "PACA/PASA Claims"). Because the PACA/PASA Claimants may impose a Statutory Trust on certain of the Merchandise and thereby obtain priority ahead of all other secured and unsecured creditors of the Debtors' estates, payment of valid PACA/PASA Claims will not prejudice or affect the amount available for distributions to other creditors of the Debtors. The Debtors estimate there are approximately $5.0 million of PACA/PASA Claims as of the Commencement Date.

18. Accordingly, the Debtors seek authority to pay PACA/PASA Claims in the ordinary course of business, pursuant to the terms of any contracts under which such claims arose. The Debtors will include a summary of any PACA/PASA Claims paid pursuant to the relief requested herein in the Critical Vendor Matrix (as defined in the Critical Vendors Motion).

Relief Requested Should Be Granted

A. Payment of Prepetition Claims of Shippers and Miscellaneous Lien Claimants Is in the Best Interest of the Debtors' Estates and Warranted Under the Doctrine of Necessity.

19. The Court may grant the relief requested herein pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that “[t]he [debtor], after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate.” 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, a court may authorize a debtor to pay certain prepetition claims if a sound business purpose exists for doing so. See In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 174 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) (finding that there must be a sound business justification to justify payment of prepetition wages); Armstrong World Indus., Inc. v. James A. Phillips, Inc. (In re James A. Phillips, Inc.), 29 B.R. 391, 397 (S.D.N.Y. 1983) (relying on section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code to allow contractor to pay prepetition claims for suppliers). The business judgment rule is satisfied where “the directors of a corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the company.” See, e.g., Official Comm. of Subordinated Bondholders v. Integrated Res., Inc. (In re Integrated Res., Inc.), 147 B.R. 650, 656 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (quoting Smith v. Van Gorkom, 488 A.2d 858, 872 (Del. 1985)), appeal dismissed, 3 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 1993). Moreover, if “the debtor articulates a reasonable basis for its business decisions (as distinct from a decision made arbitrarily or capriciously), courts will generally not entertain objections to the debtor’s conduct.” Comm. of Asbestos-Related Litigants v. Johns-Manville Corp. (In re Johns-Manville Corp.), 60 B.R. 612, 616 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) (citation omitted). Courts in this District consistently have declined to interfere with corporate decisions absent a showing a bad faith, self-interest, or gross negligence, and have upheld a board’s decisions as long as such decisions are attributable to any “rational business purpose.” Integrated, 147 B.R. at 656 (quoting CRTF Corp. v. Federated Dep’t Stores, 683 F. Supp. 422, 436 (S.D.N.Y. 1988)).

20. In addition, the Court has the authority, pursuant to its equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to authorize the relief requested herein, because such relief is necessary for the Debtors to carry out their fiduciary duties under section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code empowers bankruptcy courts to “issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title.” 11 U.S.C. § 105. Section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code “contains an implied duty of the debtor-in-possession” to “protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business’ going-concern value,” on behalf of a debtor’s creditors and other parties in interest. In re CEI Roofing, Inc., 315 B.R. 50, 59 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2004) (quoting In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002)); see also Unofficial Comm. of Equity Holders v. McManigle (In re Penick Pharm., Inc.), 227 B.R. 229, 232-33 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) (“[U]pon filing its petition, the Debtor became debtor in possession and, through its management . . . was burdened with the duties and responsibilities of a bankruptcy trustee.”).

21. The Court may also authorize the payment of prepetition claims in appropriate circumstances under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and the doctrine of necessity when such payment is essential to the continued operation of a debtor’s business. See, e.g., In re C.A.F. Bindery, Inc., 199 B.R. 828, 835 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996); In re Fin. News Network Inc., 134 B.R. 732, 735-36 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991); CoServ, 273 B.R. at 497 (“[I]t is only logical that the bankruptcy court be able to use § 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code to authorize satisfaction of the prepetition claim in aid of preservation or enhancement of the estate.”); and Just for Feet, 242 B.R. 821, 824-25 (D. Del. 1999) (holding that section 105(a) of Bankruptcy Code provides a statutory basis for payment of prepetition claims under doctrine of necessity and noting that the Court has “power to authorize payment of pre-petition claims when such payment is necessary for the debtor’s survival during chapter 11”).

22. This flexible approach is particularly critical where prepetition creditors—here, the Shippers and Miscellaneous Lien Claimants—provide vital services to a debtor that would be unavailable if the debtor did not satisfy its prepetition obligations. Indeed, paying the Lien Claimants will benefit the Debtors’ estates and their creditors by allowing the Debtors’ business operations to continue without interruption. The Lien Claimants may be unwilling to release the Merchandise in their possession to which they may be entitled to liens, because releasing possession of the Merchandise may convert their claims against the Debtors from secured to unsecured. Therefore, unless the Court authorizes the Debtors to pay the Lien Claimants, it is unlikely the Debtors will continue to have access to the Merchandise in the possession of the Lien Claimants. If the Lien Claimants possess lien rights or have the ability to exercise “self-help” remedies to secure payment of their claims, failure to satisfy the Lien Claimants’ claims could have a material adverse effect on the Debtors’ retail business operations to the detriment of the Debtors’ creditors.

23. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the proposed relief with respect to the Lien Claimants’ claims is warranted in these chapter 11 cases.

B. The Court Should Confirm That Commencement Date Orders Are Administrative Expense Priority Claims and Authorize The Debtors to Pay Such Claims.

24. Pursuant to section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Merchandise delivered on, within twenty (20) days prior to, and after the Commencement Date are entitled to administrative expense priority. Thus, granting the relief sought herein with respect to the Commencement Date Orders will not afford such claimants any greater priority than they otherwise would have if the relief requested herein were not granted. Absent such relief, however, the Debtors may be required to expend substantial time and effort reissuing the Commencement Date Orders to provide certain suppliers with assurance of such administrative priority. The attendant disruption to the continuous and timely flow of the Merchandise to the Debtors' Stores, and any resulting inability to keep the Stores adequately stocked with Merchandise for the benefit of the Debtors' customers, would damage the Debtors' business reputation, erode the Debtors' customer base and ultimately lead to a loss of revenue, all to the detriment of the Debtors and their creditors. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the Court should confirm the administrative expense priority status of the Commencement Date Orders and should authorize the Debtors to pay such orders in the ordinary course of business.

C. The Payment of PACA/PASA Claims Benefits the Debtors' Businesses and their Estates and Does Not Adversely Affect Any Parties in Interest.

25. The prompt and full payment of PACA/PASA Claims should be authorized by the Court. The disposition of Trust Assets is subject to the jurisdiction of the bankruptcy court. See Monterey Mushrooms, Inc. v. Carolina Produce Distribs., Inc., 110 B.R. 207, 209 (W.D.N.C. 1990); Allied Growers Co-Op, Inc. v. United Fruit and Produce Co., 86 B.R. 14, 16 (Bankr. D. Conn. 1988). Assets governed by PACA or PASA, however, do not constitute property of the Debtors' estates. See In re Kornblum & Co., 81 F.3d 280, 284 (2nd Cir. 1995); Morris Okun, Inc. v. Harry Zimmerman, Inc., 814 F. Supp. 346, 348 (S.D.N.Y. 1993). As a result, the distribution of assets to the PACA/PASA Claimants falls outside the priority scheme of the Bankruptcy Code, and the PACA/PASA Claimants holding PACA/PASA Claims are, thus, entitled to payment from the respective Statutory Trust ahead of the Debtors' other creditors. See, e.g., In re Magic Rests., Inc., 205 F.3d 108, 110 (3d Cir. 2000); Consumers Produce Co., Inc. v. Volante Wholesale Produce, Inc., 16 F.3d 1374, 1377-78 (3d Cir. 1994). Accordingly, the requested relief does not prejudice the Debtors' creditors. In fact, payment made to PACA/PASA Claimants on account of PACA/PASA Claims is consistent with the intent of PACA and PASA and, moreover, will inure to the benefit of the Debtors and all parties in interest by (a) facilitating the continued purchase and receipt of fresh produce and other products and (b) avoiding potential disruption to the Debtors' business operations.

26. Notably, in certain circumstances, shareholders, officers, or directors of a corporate entity who are in a position to control trust assets, but breach the fiduciary duty to preserve those assets, may be held personally liable under PACA or PASA, as applicable. See Sunkist Growers, Inc. v. Fisher, 104 F.3d 280, 283 (9th Cir. 1997); see also Goldman-Hayden Co. v. Fresh Source Produce, Inc., 217 F.3d 348, 350 (5th Cir. 2000). Thus, to the extent any valid obligations arising under PACA or PASA remain unsatisfied by the Debtors, the Debtors' officers and directors or members may be subject to lawsuits during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases. Any such lawsuit (and the ensuing potential liability) would distract the Debtors and their officers and directors from administering the Debtors' estates and, moreover, could lead to the assertion of substantial indemnification claims under the Debtors' governing documents, employment agreements, and applicable laws.

27. Finally, payment of PACA/PASA Claims will inure to the benefit of the Debtors' estates by preserving goodwill between the Debtors and certain of the vendors of fresh produce, meat and poultry products. Without the relief requested herein, the Debtors could be subject to numerous claims, adversary proceedings, and motions, including motions by PACA/PASA Claimants for relief from the automatic stay and/or complaints for injunctive relief, which would result in the unnecessary expenditure of time, effort, and money by the Debtors.

Reservation of Rights

28. Nothing contained herein is intended or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors; (ii) a waiver of the Debtors' or any appropriate party in interest's rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors; (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder; or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Likewise, if the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended to be and should not be construed as an admission to the validity of any claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute such claim subsequently.

Debtors Have Satisfied Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b)

29. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) provides that, to the extent relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, a Bankruptcy Court may issue an order granting "a motion to use, sell, lease, or otherwise incur an obligation regarding property of the estate, including a motion to pay all or part of a claim that arose before the filing of the petition" before twenty-one (21) days after filing of the petition. As described above, payment of the Miscellaneous Lien Claims, Commencement Date Orders, and PACA/PASA Claims is integral to the Debtors' operations and is necessary to maintain the Debtors' operations, as well as the confidence and goodwill of the Debtors' customer base. Failure to implement the relief with respect to the Shippers, Miscellaneous Lien Claimants, Commencement Date Orders, and PACA/PASA Claimants during the first 21 days of these chapter 11 cases will jeopardize value for the Debtors' estates and creditors. Moreover, it is the Debtors' business judgment that continuation of their positive relationship with the Shippers, Miscellaneous Lien Claimants, and PACA/PASA Claimants is imperative to their continued operations. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm, and, therefore, Bankruptcy Rule 6003 is satisfied.

Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a) and (h)

30. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors request that the Court find that notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) under the circumstances, and waive the fourteen (14) day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h). As explained above, and in the Jones Declaration, the relief requested herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors. Accordingly, ample cause exists to justify finding that the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) have been satisfied and to grant a waiver of the fourteen (14) day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent such notice requirements and such stay apply.

Notice

31. Notice of this Motion has been provided to (i) the Office of the United States Trustee for Region 2, 201 Varick Street, Suite 1006, New York, NY 10014 (Attn: Susan Arbeit, Esq. and Richard C. IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT

1. The Motion is granted on an interim basis to the extent set forth herein.
2. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay the prepetition Shipping Charges in an aggregate amount not to exceed $175,000; provided that the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay or honor only amounts or obligations that are or become due and payable between the Commencement Date and the date that a final order on the Motion is entered, unless otherwise ordered by the Court.
3. The Debtors, in their sole discretion, shall undertake appropriate efforts to cause the Shippers to acknowledge in writing that payment of their respective claims is conditioned upon such Shippers continuing to supply services to the Debtors on trade terms that, at a minimum, such Shippers provided to the Debtors on a historical basis prior to the Commencement Date, or such other trade practices and programs that are at least as favorable to the Debtors as those in effect during such time, and the Debtors reserve the right to negotiate new trade terms with any Shippers as a condition to payment of any such claim.

4. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay prepetition amounts owed on account of any Miscellaneous Lien Claims in an aggregate amount not to exceed $1.6 million; and provided that the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay only amounts due and payable as of the Commencement Date and amounts that are or become due and payable between the Commencement Date and the date that a final order on the Motion is entered, unless otherwise ordered by this Court; and provided further that the Debtors are not authorized to pay unless the applicable party who has the potential to assert Miscellaneous Lien Claims against the Debtors and their property if the Debtors fail to pay for the goods or services rendered has perfected or, in the Debtors' business judgment, is capable of perfecting or may be capable of perfecting in the future, one or more liens in respect of such claim; and provided further that such payment shall not be deemed to be a waiver of the Debtors' rights to challenge the extent, validity, perfection or possible avoidance of the related liens and payments.

5. The Debtors may condition, in their sole discretion, payment of Miscellaneous Lien Claims on the agreement of Miscellaneous Lien Claimants to continue supplying goods and services to the Debtors on the same trade terms given to them prior to the Commencement Date or upon new trade terms (to the extent agreed to by the Debtors and the Miscellaneous Lien Claimant, the "Agreed Terms").

6. To the extent a Miscellaneous Lien Claimant fails to comply with the Agreed Terms, the Debtors may, in their sole discretion, cause (a) any payment made to such Miscellaneous Lien Claimant on account of its asserted lien claim to be deemed to have been in payment of then outstanding postpetition obligations owed to the Miscellaneous Lien Claimant and (b) the Miscellaneous Lien Claimant shall be required to immediately repay to the Debtors any payment made to it on account of its asserted lien claim to the extent the aggregate amount of such payments exceeds the postpetition obligations then outstanding, without the right of any setoffs, claims, provision for payment of reclamation or trust fund claims, or otherwise.

7. Neither the Debtors nor any other party in interest concedes that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory or otherwise) satisfied pursuant to this Interim Order are valid, and the Debtors expressly reserve the right to contest the extent, validity or perfection or seek the avoidance of all such liens.

8. All undisputed amounts relating to Commencement Date Orders are hereby granted postpetition administrative expense priority pursuant to section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay such amounts in the ordinary course of business consistent with the parties' customary practices in effect prior to the Commencement Date.

9. The Debtors are hereby authorized to pay PACA/PASA Claims in the ordinary course of business consistent with the parties' customary practices in effect prior to the Commencement Date.

10. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue new postpetition checks, or effect new electronic funds transfers, on account of the Shipping Charges, Miscellaneous Lien Claims, and Commencement Date Orders to replace any prepetition checks or electronic fund transfer requests that may be lost or dishonored or rejected as a result of the commencement of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases.

11. Nothing in the Motion or this Interim Order shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due prior to the date of the final hearing to consider the relief requested in the Motion (the “Final Hearing”).

12. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any payments made or to be made by the Debtors under this Interim Order, and any authorization contained in this Interim Order, shall be in compliance with, and shall be subject to, any then-applicable order approving the Debtors’ debtor-in-possession financing facility and/or use of cash collateral, and the documentation in respect of any such debtor-in-possession financing facility, including, without limitation, the then-applicable Approved Budget under, and as defined in, any such order.

13. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order, nor any payment made pursuant to the authority granted by this Interim Order, is intended to be or shall be construed as (i) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors, (ii) a waiver of the Debtors’ or any appropriate party in interest’s rights to dispute the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors, (iii) a waiver of any claims or causes of action which may exist against any creditor or interest holder, or (iv) an approval, assumption, adoption, or rejection of any agreement, contract, lease, program, or policy between the Debtors and any third party under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

14. Nothing herein shall create, nor is intended to create, any rights in favor of or enhance the status of any claim held by any party.

15. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) have been satisfied.

16. Under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases, notice of the Motion is adequate under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a).

17. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), this Interim Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

18. The Debtors are authorized to take all action necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Interim Order.

19. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and/or enforcement of this Interim Order.
